LEADERSHIP TWIN COUNTIES

A Community Leadership Development Program

“To foster a long-term alliance among individuals from diverse backgrounds within the area who share a common vision of continual improvement in the quality of life in the greater Rocky Mount-Edgecombe-Nash Community.”

A partnership for the development of emerging leaders in the Twin Counties

Leadership for the Future

The Tar River Region Twin Counties Leadership Development Program is ideal for preparing future business and community leaders. Participants gain an in-depth view of Twin County issues, develop the skills necessary to assume leadership roles, and become more aware of community involvement opportunities. Tar River Region Leadership is an exclusive opportunity to discuss relevant topics with key community leaders.

The program includes monthly sessions addressing quality of life, social issues, government and politics, education and its impact on economic development, strategic planning, community trusteeship, the health of the area and its services. All sessions are held at different and multiple sites.

The program operates under the principle that the better informed one is about the community, the better prepared that he/she is to assume the responsibilities in preserving the valued dynamics of the community and helping to shape the future direction of the area.

The Twin County area enjoys a reputation and long history of getting things accomplished through the initiatives of strong, able and enthusiastic leadership the legacy of a CAN DO community. We look forward to assisting in the development of our area's emerging leadership.
